Dr. J. T. Summerell, of Salisbury,

For Vice-Presidents,
Dr. J. M. Happoldt, of Morganton,
". W. R. Sharp, of Davie,
" J. B. Hughes, of New Bern,
" R. L. Payne, of Lexington,

For Secretary,
Dr. W. G. Thomas, of Wilmington.

For Treasurer,
Dr. C. W. Graham, of Kenansville,

For Orator.
Dr. M. Whitehead, of Salisbury.

The committee declined to nominate members to the American Medical Association.

Respectfully submitted,
J. G. Tull, Chairman,

Adjourned until 9 o'clock, A. M.

Morganton, N.C.
May 9th, 1861.

The Society met according to adjournment. When the President, elect, Dr. Summerell returned his acknowledgements to the Society for the compliment paid him in being selected as their presiding officer for the next year, and still pledged his devotion to its farther aid, in promoting its future success.

The members were called upon for reports from their respective counties. Dr. C. Happoldt read an interesting report from the county of Burke, which elicited an elaborate discussion from the physicians of his county. Dr. R. L. Payne, of Davidson county, also read a paper on the diseases of his county, giving quite in detail the various accounts of the epidemics and treatment of the diseases, as well as the changes which occurred under his immediate observations during the last year. Dr. Kelly, of Iredell, made a report upon diptheria, as it prevailed in the immediate neighborhood of Statesville. Dr. Sharp of Davie also reported upon the thermal changes which had taken place for the last four years in his country, and requested an expression of opinion relative to the causes of those changes and the effect produced upon the type of disease as now existed from that of former years. Dr. J. M. Happoldt of Morganton, entertained the Society with an interesting case of vernal asthma, as it prevailed annually in his own person. This, with the other reports, were ordered to be published in the Medical Journal.

Dr. McKee introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously passed.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of this Society be instructed to pay over to the Editors of the North Carolina Medical Journal, such sums of money which he may have in his hands, from time to time, after defraying the ordinary expenses of the Society, so as to enable them to carry on its publication--provided, that the Journal should not be able to sustain itself, and that the Editors are authorized to draw the same upon their statement; and that the assessment for the present year be two dollars upon each permanent member and county society.

The President made the following appointments to report on the epidemics and diseases of their respective counties at the next meeting of the Society.

the profession, and the citizens of Morganton, for the hospitality and agreeable attentions shown to the members during the annual meeting.

It was ordered that the minutes of the proceedings of the Society be published in the Medical Journal.

On motion, the Society adjourned to meet in the town of Wilmington, on the second Wednesday in May, 1862.

J. J. Summerell, President.

W. H. McKee, Secretary, pro tem.

Constitution

of the

Medical Society of the State of North Carolina,
As amended at its eleventh annual meeting,
April 1860.

Article I- Title of the Society.

The title of the Society shall be "The Medical Society of the State of North Carolina."

Article II--The objects of the Society.

The objects of this Society shall be the advancement of medical knowledge, the elevation of professional character, and the promotion of all measures of a professional nature that are adapted to the relief of suffering humanity, and to improve the health and protect the lives of the community.

Article III--Members of the Society.

Sec. I. This Society shall consist of Permanent Members, Delegates, Associates, and Honorary Members.

Sec. 2. The Permanent Members shall consist of such regular Physicians as shall be admitted on motion of a Member; Provided, he receives two-thirds of the votes present; and the Member thus admitted shall be entitled to all the privileges of the society. He must firs sign the Constitution and By-laws, and pay the assessment.

Sec. 3. The Delegates shall receive their appointment from the County Societies, and from the Counties that have no Society a delegate may be appointed by the Profession of the County: Provided, they have as many as two regular Practitioners within the County.

Sec. 4. Every Delegate, before admission to a seat in the Society, shall produce a certificate of delegation, signed by the President or Secretary of the County Society or Association and shall sign the Constitution and pay the assessment.

Sec. 5. Each delegate shall hold his appointment for one year, or until another is appointed to succeed him.

Sec. 6. Every member of a County Society shall be an associate member of the State Medical Society.

Sec. 7. An associate member shall be entitled to all the privileges of attending upon the deliberations of the Society, and take part in its discussions, but shall not be allowed to vote, nor shall he be eligible to office.

Article IV - of the Officers.

Sec. I. The officers of this Society shall be a Presidnet, four Vice Presidents, a Corresponding and Recording Secretary, and Treasurer.

Sec. 2. At each annual meeting the Society shall elect by ballot one member from each County represented, who shall constitute a Committee on nominations, whose duty it shall be to nominate the officers of the Society, delegate to the American Medical Association, orator and honorary members, and report the same for the action of the Society.

Sec. 3. The report of the said Committee shall be decided by vote, viva voce, and the officers, delegates and orator so elected, shall serve for one year, or until others are elected to succeed them.

Sec. 4. None but permanent members and delegates shall be eligible to the office of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

Article V- Duties of the Officers.

Sec. 1. The President shall preside at the meeting, preserve order, and perform such other duties as custom and parliamentary usage may require. He shall not be eligible for two terms in succession.

Sec. 2. The Vice-Presidents, when called upon, shall assist the President in the performance of his duties, and during the absence, and at the request of the President, one of them shall officiate in his place. They shall not be eligible for two terms in succession.

Sec. 3. The Corresponding and Recording Secretary shall conduct the correspondence, and perform such other duties as usually appertain to that office; and shall keep correct minutes of the proceedings of the Society and shall fairly transcribe the same, when approved, in a book kept for that purpose. He shall have charge of all papers belonging to the Society, other than those appertaining to the Treasurer; and shall give due notice of the annual meetings; and shall receive such compensation as the Society may from year to year determine.

Sec. 4. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the Society, and give receipts for all sums paid into his hands to the individual paying the same, and disburse them as directed, preserving vouchers for the same. He shall annually present a statement of the finances to the Society, which shall be referred to a committee of three delegates, to be audited.

Article VI. -Of the County Societies.

Sec. 1. The members of the profession in any County of this State, who form themselces into a County Society, may become auxiliary to this Society: Provided, That all the regular practitioners in the County have been invited to unite in its organization; and, provided, t that the constitution and laws of such Society do not contravene those of the State Society.

Sec. 2. No one shall be admitted as a member of the County Society, unless he is either a graduate in medicine of some respectable Medical School, or has been a practitioner for at least five years; and who, moreover, is in good moral and professional standing in the place where he resides, and is a regular practitioner.

Sec. 3. Any physician who shall procure a patent for a remedy, or instrument of surgery, or who shall hereafter give a certificate in favor of a patent remedy, or instrument, shall be deemed disqualified from becoming a member of a County Society.

Sec. 4. As soon as the County Society is organized, the Secretary thereof shall trasmit to the Corresponding and Recording Secretary one copy of the Constitution and By-Laws, with the names of their officers and members. The Society shall be authorized to elect any delegate to the State Society for every five of its members.

Sec. 5. Every County Society shall enforce the observance by its members of the Code of Ethics adopted by the State Society, and they shall be authorized to censure or expell any member convicted of violating its provisions.

Sec. 6. A member of the County Society who is censured or expelled, shall have a right to appeal to the State Society.

Sec. 7. A member who is expelled, shall be debarred from the rights of consultation, or the privileges of professional intercourse with any member of the State Society.

Sec. 8. The County Societies shall report annually to the State Society a list of their officers and members, any new rules which they may adopt, and such other matters as they may deem interesting.

Sec. 9. The County Society shall hold at least two meetings in each year.

Sec. 10. If any County Medical Society shall neglect to perform all such acts as may be required to be done by the laws of the State Society, or shall be guilty of conduct derogatory to the honor of the Medical profession, or shall oppose or neglect to comply with the laws of the State Society, such county shall during such delinquency, have their privileges, as a portion of the State Society suspended, and their delegates shall not be entitled to a seat in the State Society.

Article VII - Meeting of the Society.

The Society shall hold an Annual Meeting. The time and place of meeting shall be determined, for each succeeding year, by a vote of the Society.

Article VIII-Of the Funds of the Society.

Sec.1. Funds for defraying the current espenses of the Society shall be raised by assessments on permanent members and County or District Societies in connection with the State Society.

Sec. 2. Each permanent member, after being duly elected and having signed the Constitution, shall pay the sum of five dollars as an admission fee, and subject to the annual assessment of the Society, with the exception of

of the assessment for the year of his admission.

Sec. 3. Should a permanent member fail to pay the assessments two successive years, after having been notified by the Treasurer of his delinquencies, his name shall be stricken from the list of members.

Sec. 4. Each County or District Society shall pay, through the hands of its Delegate or Delegates, the annual assessment; and in case such County or District Society is not represented, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to forward an account of said assessment to the Secretary or Treasurer of the County or District Society for collection.

Sec. 5. Should a County or District Society, in connection with this Society, fail to pay the annual assessment two successive years, after having been notified by the Treasurer of its delinquencies, its right of representation in this Society shall be suspended until said assessments are paid.

Article IX - Code of Ethics.

This Society adopts, as a part of its regulations, that part of the Code of Ethics of the American Medical Association, which it has published by its order.

Article X.- Provisions for Amendments.

Every proposal for altering or amending this Constitution shall be made in writing; and if such alteration or amendment receives the unanimous vote of the members present, it shall be adopted; but, if objections be made, the alteration or amendment shall lie over until the next annual meeting, when, if it receive the vote of two-thirds of the voters present, it shall be adopted.
